Southern Splendor Brings Enchantment

BETSY HALEY, reigning Prom Queen of '66', bestows a grateful smile upon her domoin as they present her with a dozen roses.

Reminiscent of the antebellum South, the Gavit gymnasium was transformed into "Southern Splendor", for the Junior-Senior Prom, Friday, May 13.

Upon entering, guests were received by officers in a magnolia lane with a picket fence and floral entwined arches. In addition, a plantation mansion, white wrought iron lawn furniture, gardens, and a waterfall fountain, twinkling with colored lights, graced the surroundings. The decorations were all part of the effort of the Junior class during free modules, lunch hours, and after school.

After coronation by Cliff Aldrin, Junior class president, Betsy Haley and escort, Greg Looman, lead the Grand March of belles and beaus. Under a ceiling of blue angel hair, one hundred and fifty couples danced to the music of Buddy Mars. A puppet and balloon sculptering act, along with the Gents provided additional music and entertainment.

A midnight supper of prime rib of beef was served. And a 3:30 breakfast in the cafeteria concluded prom festivities.

and Memories to Juniors and Seniors

Students Gain Knowledge Through Summer

WATCHING INTENTLY as Mr. Harvey Zaun explains mechanical operation of the automobile are Sally Foster, Sue Bergman and Marsho Dockery.

DURING EARLY MORNING driving session, student wisely uses his spare time to study outside on school benches.

School Curriculum

Summer school began June 6 with two-hundred sixty-four students enrolled in Driver's Education and five-hundred and seven starting academic classes for the eight week period.

Nine instructors taught techniques of defensive driving. Students drove an average of one hour per week and were exposed to all types of driving situations involving various kinds of traffic conditions. When students were not driving, they viewed movies, listened to lectures by guest speakers, and participated in textbook discussion.

Two-hour class periods enabled students to acquire knowledge of a whole semester's work in the fields of science, developmental reading, English, history, math, and business.

Developmental reading students completed a series of speed reading films and power building exercises which increased reading speeds to more than four hundred words a minute.

A new highlight enjoyed by history classes was a sight-seeing tour of Hammond at which time students learned of the facts, people, and legends behind the founding of the city and surrounding area.

Sixty-four members of the band and Drill Team attended Summer Band Camp at Tippicanoe State Park, where they acquired knowledge of instrumental techniques and developed pre-game and half-time shows.

WITH CONCENTRATED expression, Gail Meltz studies library material.

DEMONSTRATING proper typing techniques and home row keys, Mrs. Olgo O'Toale stresses to students the need for skill and accuracy.

Language Courses Challenge Intellect

Spanish, along with French, German and Latin, offered a four year curriculum, though only two years were required for college preparation. Languages stressed speaking as students acquired structural skills, and demonstrated aptitude through quizzes and tests.

Language Department expanded boundaries to include Russian, the second slavic language offered in the curriculum. Students became familiar with the language and obtained information about the country and customs. Memorization of exercises with grammar reading demonstrated learning techniques. Dialogue and dialect implanted elocution structure with continuation of previous programs in German classes. Latin instruction presented fundamentals in first and second years through context, and translation in third year Latin. French films stressed the importance of expression and pronunciation while holding attention through visual aid. The movie Je Parle employed use of language study.

Applicants of the Indiana honors test, Mike Wilson and Roger Merkel, were two of the thirty highest scorers, making them eligible to become exchange students to Germany.

MR. JOSE ALVAREZ speaks in dialog with Spanish I students who try grasping the language.

STUDENT PONDER alphabet as Roger Merkel explains the difference in "znaks". Miss Maryann Sabal finds students learn faster through participation in class activities.

DEMONSTRATING different tense forms Gale Hartman conjugates a troublesome Latin verb while Bob Blamire explains its function in sentence form
MR. MARTIN HUNT collects written homework after answering questions for pupils.

English Department Extends Curriculum

English Department featured a variety of required and elective courses to interest and aid GHS students. To meet requirements for graduation, students were offered choices of College Prep, Practical, or General English. Future collegiates enrolled in College Prep classes, and excelled to advanced material in grammar and literature. Grads seeking positions in the business world polished practical skills in Practical English. General English combined grammar and literature in course of study.

Electives afforded opportunity for students to broaden interests in certain areas. World Literature probed history and influences of great literature as related to the society and culture of the period. Budding authors developed skills in composition of various types, and contributed to "The Voice of Youth", a column appearing in the Chicago Tribune featuring articles of area youth. Several entered the essay contest sponsored by Indiana University in hopes of winning scholarship rewards. Amateur journalists studied mass media in revised Journalism course. Developing techniques of journalistic writing, students had opportunity to elect newspaper or yearbook for their second semester.

WORLD LITERATURE EXTENDS into the oriental land of China, as Mr. Larry Wray discusses Chinese literature with attentive listeners engaged in note-taking.

PREPARING ROUGH draft far a theme in English, Jaanno Moser goins experience in expressing her ideas and thoughts.

SCANNING CARD catalogue Mike Wilson hunts reference material for research paper.

Class listens to Mr. Gary Kallaus expanding an intraduction to poetry.

Readers, Speakers, Polish Learned Skills

Stagecraft, a new addition to the Drama department, dealt mainly with the technical aspects of the stage. Class projects included designing and constructing flats, experimenting with painting effects, and reupholstering furniture.

Senior High classes further investigated the intricacies of the theater. Through class performances they exemplified their knowledge of acting and gained experience in make-up application and play production.

Speech orators demonstrated capability to deliver clear and articulate recitations through impromptu speeches. Utilizing theories on public speaking, speech classes emphasized the value of well prepared oratory work. Techniques and mechanics were stressed. Student applied oratory ability in the specialized fields of debate, legislative speaking, and radio announcing.

A major aspect of Developmental Reading was individualized instruction for each student's aptitude. Reading rates were advanced at the student's own level, speed, and interest. Speed reading films and classroom drills utilized note taking and vocabulary building. Science Research Associates presented advanced reading and comprehension material.

INTRIGUING SPEECH I CLASS, Marsha Alexandersan persuades classmates to understand her point of view while Mr. Roland Unkuri appraises and grades her presentation.

UTILIZING READING accelerator, Tim Irk strives for reading speed as Becky Brawn and Jim Federaff review material.

JUNIOR JOURNALISTS Margaret Burdeau, Becky Ericksen, and Kathy Ganz entertain classmates with cammercial presentation in study of mass communication via television skits.

SPEECH STUDENTS Rick Biancardi and Caleen DuPree sample cotton candy as part of a required demonstration speech.

Sociology Added to Social Sciences

LECTURE ON BEHAVIOR PATTERNS of middle class high school from Kinsey report is given to Psychology class by Mr. Gene Cannors.

Psychology course widened in scope as more students probed the theories of Freud, and pseudo-sciences. In addition to studying personality, abnormal behavior, and the learning processes, text was supplemented by classroom discussion and experiments. Highlights of course were programs by guest speakers and a field trip to Beatty Memorial Hospital.

Analyzing major problems of society, students of new Social Problems course attempted to relate the individual to society. Problems of juvenile delinquency, population explosion, family breakdown, and the aged in society were probed to find roots.

SOCIOLOGY STUDENTS Larry Bradburn, John Austgen, Ted Porter, and Charles Savickis break up into unit groups for general panel discussions on the social family structure and the environment problems it encompasses.

DISECTING A LOBSTER, Mary Janek and James McGaha listen to camments fram instructor Miss Francis Kasperek.

READING INSTRUCTIONS from baak, Paul Shaddy guides Mike Shutko and Diane Bartowski through experiment.

B.S.C.S. students, Cathie Whitney and Sondy Sanders test reflex action of a frog's heart.

BIOLOGY students examine systems of a muskrat emphasizing the location of the mammals kidney, liver, and other vital organs.

Science Expands Thru Experiment

Science Department introduced Economic Biology, a new course dealing with economic importance of plants and animals to man. Studies involved food production and types of food produced as rubber, cotton, and flax. Explored were processing techniques and product obtainment. Undertaken were projects of tree and shrub planting, displaying landscaping techniques through beautification of school grounds.

Action in doing was the key to applied biology, shown by field trips to a water purification plant, a butcher shop, and a journey to a greenhouse. Facts of purification, local wild animals, the best cuts of meat off a steer, and plant studies were accomplished as a result of the visits.

Dissections of field mice, sheep's heart, muskrat and opossum were added to lab work in B.S.C.S., with regular biology classes dissecting plants and animals.

Formulas tested the mental stamina and alertness of Physics students, as they pondered basic facts with theorems and vectors. Sound, lights, and heat were ideas test-tubed and tried in class discussions.

Chemistry classes studied electron configuration of atoms, electron dot symbols, gas laws, stoichiometry chemistry, hydrated atoms, atomic weight and atomic numbers.

TESTING the force of a crane boom, Kathi Taylor and Mary Rodivich collect data for their laboratory write up.

PREPARING EXPERIMENT, Jim Kasprzycki and Pat Vance study report.

ANALYZING DIAGRAM, Dan Faster and Mr. Delbert Stevens attempt to solve vicious geometry problem.

GENERAL MATH class listens attentively as Mr. Robert Jackson reviews the classes' homework and illustrates problems on the blackboard.

Analysis Offers Challenge to Seniors

General mathmen canvassed basic arithmetic. Students juggled income tax forms and struggled for black ink budgets. Preview of algebra and geometry rounded out the year-long term.

Algebra classes deciphered equations, ratios and formulas. Notebooks of homework and tests stored reference and review material. Handed in at nine week intervals, folders determined the period's effort grade.

Setting personal speed rate, U.I.C.S.M. mathematicians tackled geometrical theories with self proofs. Students pondered over a "thinking process" vital to solvement of problems.

Angles of triangles, octagons and squares taxed gray matter of geometry students. Solving triangular bisection problems were the type of problems to be solved during the course.

LEAST COMMON multiplier and greatest camman factor stump student Nancy Lewis who takes notes in preparation for future test.

ANALYTICAL THEOREMS, basic to the understanding of solutions, are tackled by Sue Bergman with help of Mr. Marshall Del Greca.

Social Studies Outline People, Places

Social Studies Department offered a series of courses from World Geography to Economics as well as elective courses. Freshmen began with World Geography, where they learned important factors of the world's physical features. Sophomores traced world developments from prehistoric times through the World Wars in World History I and II. United States History classes traced important events in the growth of the United States. Students took pride in the American Heritage as they found underlying structures of democratic government.

Seniors developed an interest in current affairs as they found practical applications for principles of democratic government and capitalistic economy. Writing term papers and collecting pertinent newsclippings were added to classroom lectures and discussions.

Far Eastern History provided opportunity for interested students to probe problems of Asian countries.

Current History offered a means of analysis of contemporary ideas in government and history of modern times.

DEFENDING his answers, Bob Zimmerman, confers with Miss Diane Clinton on his latest Government exam.

PUPILS FOCUS attention on Bob Dockery as he elaborates on articles found for Contemporary History. In a special report Bob proved the old theory that history repeats itself.

REVIEWING PAST chapters, Jayce Farnari and Jim Shultman review important events and countries in preparation for a test in World History.

LOCATING EUROPE'S major rivers, Jahn Myers emphasizes their importance to economy in Mr. Larry Bewley's geography class.

PROS AND CONS of feudal government are stressed by Mr. John Swanson in his For Eastern History class.

Pupils Acquire Skill Thru Performance

A new elective, Business English, was offered to students who wished to grasp concepts of English in relation to Business.

Stenography was offered to those interested in professional secretarial work as a career. Speed and accuracy were stressed in Typing and Shorthand, while general business gave an overall view of the business world. Bookkeeping utilized numerical side of Math-minded.

Four semester courses were offered in Bookkeeping and Typing, where students delved into problems pertaining to office work. Shorthand classes encompassed two semesters. A work plan resume was followed in Office Machines, which gave practical applications in use of calculators, adding machines, duplicators, and minographs.

Consumer Economics applied procedures of Business world related to family income. Juniors and Seniors who planned a single semester of typing were presented with Personal Typing. This included students who had taken Middle School typing and wished to continue in an accelerated manner of Typing.

CREDIT ENTRIES are explained by Mr. Donald Lucchi to Bob Biolon and Bev Craak in Bookkeeping Class.

PARTAKING IN rotation schedule, pupils work with rotary calculator and full key adding machine.

DISTINGUISHING LABELS are pointed out on Betsy Holey's coat by Debbie Hurd in consumer economics.

MAKING UP a shorthond lesson, Kothy Mitchell translates to Mrs. Gerry Mullin.

CONCENTRATING on perfect tronscription in timed drills, stenography students roce for speed as Mrs. Essie Mott oversees progress.

Economy Accented in Homemaking

MASTERING THE ART of muffin making, students observe Miss Mory Jo Mc Morrow's baking techniques.

DICTATING DIRECTIONS, Janice Eorl guides Alice Skolbo as she adds finishing touches to her winter suit made of wide wale corduroy.

Foods I and II classes prepared breakfasts and lunch dishes and advanced to preparation of dinners with meat, with supplementary review of table arrangement and etiquette. Advanced Foods III concentrated on planning meals to suit different budgets as they learned art of making yeast breads and other difficult dishes.

Home Nursing course stressed care of the sick in the home, mastering bed-making and thermometer reading. Safety measures and accident prevention were observed.

Future homemakers chose fabrics and furniture for homes in Home Management. After house plans were drawn to scale, rooms were decorated.

Clothing students chose patterns for skirt, jumper, and blouse and selected fabric for each. In addition, good grooming was reviewed during first semester. Second semester work was devoted to completion of a dress, blouse, and pleated skirt. Clothing III class made suits and coats as they used advanced skills and learned to economize on clothing. Required for new Clothing IV were a dressy dress, child's garment, and a restyled garment.

FUNDAMENTALS of interior decorating are demonstrated by Mrs. Geraldine Weiland, with students diagrams of home furnishings.

A MULTICOLOR SPRING fabric was the choice of Kathy Janick for her clothing 1 class project.

EXPERIMENTS IN CREATIVITY are encouraged as chalk drawings of Mike Martin, David Lain, Kerry McCutchin and Bob Petree take on form and shape of their own ideas portrayed in abstract in Art Projects.

DESIGNING A MODEL HOME, molding clay, and using glass in silk screening are some of the many opportunities to expand in Art Projects, as shown by Paul Loshbrook, Gene White and John Rippe.

Artists Expand Ability With Practice

Beginning art students worked on projects centering around principles of variety, harmony, symmetry, and asymmetry. Printing and drawing were done, thus giving example to the tools of texture, line, color, form and space.

Second semester artists became sculptors as they represented figures with wire, plaster, and paper mache, molded and shaped pottery and chipped and chiseled wood into forms. Illustrated by their constructions were the qualities of tri-dimension and spacial perception.

Art projects, third semester, gave students freedom to pursue and cultivate varying interests from oil painting to lettering. In addition, the art department made decorations for fall and winter choral concerts and highlighted showcases with holiday design.

Using a college textbook Art History students undertook the study of art from past to present. Viewing slides of sculpture and architectural paintings helped students to compare the development of styles and techniques. Included in class activities were research papers on topics of individual interest and field trips to the Art Institute.

Art History involves students in all phases and periods of prehistoric and historic art. Comparison, contrast, and similarity are examined in group discussion led by Miss Beulah Seckinger.

INTRODUCING GRAPHIC ARTS, Mr. Richard Clausen illustrates operating parts of offset press to Rita Moss, Valerie Thinner and Don Grobski.

USING DRAFTING EQUIPMENT Mrs. Dougherty helps George Van Slyke scale his house plan.

BENDING AND SHAPING metal rods with di-ocro machine, Bob Igyorto and Rick Dixon are aided in Metal Shop by Mr. Norm Bonas.

Shops Offer Major Training in Machines

Learning to operate the photo offset camera and letter press were the beginnings of fundamental composition taught in Graphic Arts I. Progressing on to the second semester, students applied new knowledge to solving problems such as designing, preparing, and binding to specifications. Advanced classes continued their studies in more detail while assisting on Scroll and general school publication productions.

A new method in plastic casting along with foundry and welding work were main projects in metal shop class.

Mechanical drawing enthusiasts continued the examination of the arch and machine, besides exploring the development of drawing, students mastered use of the drawing board, angle and T-square.

In wood shop class amateur craftsmen learned both sides of the wood working art by employing hand and machine driven tools in their constructions. Handiwork ranged from candle sticks and salad bowls to chests and card tables.

Fundamentals of electricity was the first topic to be taken up by the electric shop students. Once mastered, the next step involved electricians working with formulas, applying tests and experiments, and finally evaluating results.

In addition apprentice electricians probed problems involving household wiring and the making of simple machines.

Power mechanics course was initiated in fall semester. The new shop introduced students to several types of power mechanics and the function of machines in relation to internal combustion engines.

UNDER SUPERVISION of Mr. Erwin Brouer, Woodshop students Don Morlow, Tom Guzek and Dove Chorbo lower roof to scale model house for completion of construction project.

SPOTTED BY CLASSMATES, tumblers prove their skill on gymnastic equipment as classmates watch with interest and await turns to perform.

Girls, Boys Keep Fit with Team Sports

ASSISTED BY upperclassmen young grapplers learn techniques of wrestling.

The girl's physical education department began the '66 school year by procuring new sports equipment. After using the boys' apparatus for several years, hockey sticks, shin guards, assorted square dance records, a vaulting horse and parallel bars were obtained. The fall season started with the fast moving game of field hockey and then swung into square dancing. Acquiring the skills of serving and dribbling, the girls moved through volley ball and basketball. Techniques for bowling were stressed via films, but for actual bowling, the girls joined G.A.A. for a variety of extra curricular activities.

Experience in team sports rounded out the curriculum for boys' phys. ed. classes. Weight training, a new activity, was added to the agenda to teach boys the proper use of weightsets. Isometric and isotonic exercises were used as body building implements. Work units were set up for students to learn the rules and basic techniques of various pinning combinations. The phys. ed. program also included soccer, fly football, basketball, volleyball, tumbling, gymnastics soccey, track and field events, and softball.

EYEING BALL AS it soars over net, volleyball enthusiasts strive to win as teams vie in interclass competition.

New Gold Blazers Costume Orchestra

INVOLVED IN the rhythmic movement of the music, Mr. Donald Balk conducts Orchestra with a masterful hand.

BRASS SECTION of band consisting of Dale Keller, Paul Shode, Jim Pose, Robert Schneider, and Steve Farmer practice in harmony with help of Mr. Donald Balk.

Orchestra was given a boost with new gold blazers and their first student teacher in the first half of fall semester. In April, the Orchestra acquired the highest rating for bands of its size in Northern Indiana.

Band divisions were many and varied. Marching band, Pep band, Dance band, and Orchestra divisions of String and the new Woodwind sections combined to make a wide curriculum.

Student goals were reached through the opportunity to explore all types and levels of music as well as becoming better acquainted with their instrument. Efforts were made to expose pupils to good music and concepts of music theory were displayed and discussed.

Variety provided both cultural aspects to inspire and spirited selections at school activities which gave unity and sparked enthusiasm. Band executed a special service to Gavitt and the community by its performances.

Students Discover Talents in Music

CONDUCTING REHEARSAL, Mr. Thomas Clark directs group in preparation for concert.

Choral Department students were offered a wide choice of classes where they could display their musical talents.

Music Theory helped to prepare students for future at the college or professional level. Studying the complexities of music and composing original tunes helped to fulfill this task.

Glee Club, a non-selective beginning group, acted as a training choir. Fundamentals of music theory were taught along with proper singing methods and techniques.

Boy's and Girl's Choir made up the intermediate groups which studied advanced musical literature. From these groups students were auditioned and selected for Concert Choir.

Concert Choir acted as the ultimate choir in the Choral Department. As advanced music was studied, the class demanded much preparation and study. Concert Choir served as a performing group, averaging ten appearances in and out of school.

Concert Choir entertained shoppers in the mall of the Woodmar Shopping Center singing familiar and traditional carols. Members sang songs for an evening concert in Hyde Park Methodist Church.

Choraleers Introduced to Community

Soloists and ensembles ventured to Butler University in February to participate in Indiana vocal contest. Fort Wayne found Girls' Choir and Concert Choir competing for honors in Indiana State Choir Contest.

Activities of choirs also included preparing music for citywide music festival, Fine Arts Festival and Baccalaureate.

Rhythmaires, dressed as soldiers and sailors, made their first appearance in Spring Concert, singing war songs popular in the 1940's. Rhythmettes clad in loden green jumpers and white blouses entertained at Fall Concert and Christmas concert and assembly. Choraleers, newly formed choral ensemble, selected from Concert Choir, performed for many outside appearances with boys dressed in white dinner jackets and girls in wool dresses. Their repertoire was mostly popular music.

Varsity gridmen finished first year of Northwest Conference play against state-rated teams of Morton, E.C. Washington and E.C. Roosevelt.

Defeated in primary N.W. conference play with Morton, Gladiators bounced back with a whopping 7-1 per-point tally against the River Forest Ingots. It was an uphill struggle as a spirited eleven succumbed in remaining conference games.

Versatile junior linebacker, Dennis Bond and senior tackle John Austgen gained Tri-City All Star Team recognition. Honorable mention on Tri-City team went to Tom Guzek, Gene Sojka and John Williams.

Triumphant B-team Shows Gavit Spirit

Gavit's B-Team gridiron upheld Gladiator tradition as they posted a 4-1 season for 1966. Rushed by such rivals as Hammond High, E.C. Roosevelt, and E.C. Washington, Gavit racked up continuous victories, with only a close game against Morton marring their season.

B-Team members gained valuable knowledge for next fall from experience obtained by playing along side varsity teammates. The fine potential that will be needed to fight in the tough Northwest Conference was shown throughout the season.

Freshman Footballers Uphold Tradition

Freshmen gridlers exhibited forceful courage as they experienced their first season of high school competition. Coach James Shilling stated that the boys were potentially fine football players and overcame major disadvantages. The first year gridmen faced a tough schedule meeting foes Hammond High, Morton and East Chicago Roosevelt. Injuries to key men hurt the frosh team's possibilities, but not their fighting spirit agreed coaches Donald Poland and David Theis.

Hopefully, these fighting freshmen will fill the gaps in the 1968 junior varsity team. The frosh gridmen were captained by Craig Muir and John Cargal.

Hill and Dalers' Efforts Improve Record

Gavit's road runners, competing in the tough Northwest Conference, finished with a 7-8 record. Overall, the Glads finished with a 9-9 dual meet record.

The team's best showings were their wins over E.C. Roosevelt, Clark, Horace Mann and Tech. The mighty Gladiators won over Munster 24-32 as Paul Sills finished first, Allen Miller fourth, and a string of Glads following immediately behind. The City Track Meet in October left sprinters in third place losing second place by one point.

Gavit's varsity basketball five embarked on its first season in the rugged Northwest Conference. The well-respected Glads gave teams a rough time, even though their 5-6 conference record and 7-15 season do not look very impressive. Valparaiso was one of the mighty Gladiators unsuspecting victims as it was a nip and tuck battle with the lead changing hands. With Valpo leading 61-60 in the final seconds, Bob Igyarto fired a 25 foot jump shot that went in at the buzzer, making the final score 62-61: Gavit. The always tops E.C. Washington and Gary Roosevelt squads were not sure of victories over Gavit B-ballers until the last minutes. In Sectional competition the G-men beat Clark 87-64 and then had to face the Tech Tigers in the semi-finals. The lead went back and forth between the Tigers and the Glads until the 3rd quarter when Tech finally pulled away from Gavit round ballers to win 98-84 and go on to win the Hammond Sectionals.

Senior Bob Igyarto was high point man for the team with 399 points followed closely by senior Dick Winkley's 378 points. This was a 18.2 point game average for Igyarto and 17.2 point average for Winkley. Highest field goal percentage went to Dick with 50.8. Bob had the highest free throw percentage of 78.1. Next year's team will be strengthened by the return of starting junior Rick Biancardi and junior letter winner Len Templeton.

Freshmen B-Team Shoots Toward Victory

Gavit B-Team basket ballers produced a winning season of 9-8 in their first season of Northwest Conference competition. Coach Tom Chintis' team exhibited great promise for next year as they ended the season with decisive victories over Crown Point, Andean, and Clark. Those who will fill the shoes of their varsity counterparts next year are Bill Roberts, Bob Thegze, Jim Hines, Don Wilson, and Don DeArmond.

Gavit's freshman roundballers compiled a fine record of 6-7, as they competed on the high school level for the first time. Coach John Shields' boys romped over such foes as Whiting, Tech and Clark. Dan Salzynski, Jack Winkley, Jeff DeArmond, Dan Thorton, and Dave Huneryager were the starting five for the Gladiator team.

The beginning of the season was rough for the Gladiator Varsity Grapplers, but they came back courageously to testify that Gavit High School is still the wrestling capital. The teams only loses were two close, hair-raisers as the mighty Glads compiled an 11-2 dual meet record. After being nipped by Morton, it was assumed the G-men had lost the opportunity for a second Northwest Conference Title. In the last meet of the season, however, the Glads conquered the Roosevelt Rough Riders to retain the Conference Title.

Six of the purple and gold matmen had undefeated dual meet records. Don Housley (12-0) at 95 lbs., Tim Smith (13-0) at 103 lbs., Jim Baker (6-0) at 120 lbs., Jack Degnan (2-0-1) at 120 lbs., Larry Steinkraus (10-0) at 127 lbs., and Dennis Bond (11-0) at 180 lbs. Dennis Bond was the only sectional winner, while Dennis Kiest took second. Competing against 220 boys from Indiana in his weight class, Bond went all the way to the State Finals where he took second place.

Gavit's B-team scored their second consecutive undefeated season. Pat Lain, Dwayne Petrie, Dan Foster and Rick Merrick were the only undefeated B-team grapplers. Bob Dack garnered a second in the rugged Beckman Freshman Invitational.

G.H.S. HIGH jump-pole vaulting ace, junior Tom Fortenbury, releases pole as he easily clears cross bar.

Gavit High cindermen were admired by others for they had the advantage for owning the best all-weather track in the state. With the newly installed rubberized-asphalt track, runners beat old records completed on cinders.

Finishing fifth in the Northwest Conference, Gavit's best track team compiled a 10-5 record in their second year of conference competitions. The thinclads finished their Conference season with a sound 80 point win, with E.C. Roosevelt 22 points back followed by Clark and Gary Mann. In dual meet competition the Gladiators defeated Bishop Noll by 22 points and buried Munster easily.

Strong point scorers for the Glad cindermen were pole vaulter Tom Fortenbury, 2-miler Paul Sills, miler Ron Allen, high jumper Don DeArmond, hurdler Randy Smith, sprinter Tom McKay, 1/2-miler Tom Grubbs and shot putter Len Templeton.

Others that consistently scored were sprinter Larry Bradburn, 1/4-miler Jim Novotney, 2-miler Al Miller, miler Bill Jukich, and shot putter Jack Eisen.

Baseballers, Golfers Break Records

SENIOR PITCHER Dick Winkley, worms up during pre-season practice session.

Rated as top contenders for Northwest Conference championship the Gavit nine lived up to their rating. With the pitching of seniors Tom Guzek, Howie Hilbrich and Dick Winkley, the Glads downed Clark 3-2, E.C. Washington 1-0 and tied Whiting 0-0 in 9 innings of play. Coach Norm Banas' team was aided by the strong batting power of senior Tom Meeks and sophomore Jim Hines.

Glad Golfers started the season with decisive victories over Morton, Hammond High, Gary Mann, and Clark. Gavit turfmen will be strong contenders for the Northwest conference title. Coach Joe Goodnight's starting six were seniors George VanSlyke, Cliff Aldrin, and juniors Mark Nagdeman, Jim Hickman, Bill Gay, and sophomore Mike Connor.

Outstanding Athletes Gain Recognition

Outstanding Athlete Award was presented to Tom Guzek at the All-Sports banquet, April 24. Guzek lettered for achievement as best pass receiver in football. Shooting toward success, he boosted the team's victories for a climatic basketball season, and compiled an exceptional record as Glad's outstanding baseball pitcher.

Senior distance runner Paul Sills, gained recognition in track competition by placing second in Cross Country Sectional and scoring in Regionals. By running the two-mile under ten minutes, Sills set a new track record.

Winning Sectional and Regional wrestling meets, junior Dennis Bond became first Gladiator to compete in state finals and win a second place honor.

Representing Gavit on Tri-City All Star football team were senior tackle John Austgen and line-backer Dennis Bond. Honorable mention on Tri-City grid team went to end Tom Guzek, center John Williams and tackle Gene Soyka.

THREE SPORT LETTERMAN, Tom Guzek, earned Outstanding Athlete Award for participating four years in football, basketball, and baseball.

V-Neck Sweaters Uniform Pep Club

White V-neck sweaters and pom-poms of purple and gold manifested Pep Club at football and basketball games. Megaphones also induced clamor of spirited students as they urged team onward to victory.

Pep Club, sponsored by Miss Jackie McFall and Mr. Donald Kopenec, grew rapidly. Purple and gold crepe paper pom-poms were made by members. Club coordinated lively pep assemblies, including humorous and original skits. Johnette Mazur, club president, and officers planned routines and practiced cheers together with the cheerleaders. Cheering block added color and effective emphasis for general enthusiasm. Gavit school spirit was aroused through the example of bouyant club members. Out-of-town game attendance was boosted through efforts of the club by supplying student bus service to games.

G.A.A. OFFICERS—C. Colantonio, N. Jorocz, I. Wosiutyk, L. Franklin.

Twirlers linked style and agility to Marching band, proven by trophy depicting an outstanding performance in the East Chicago parade. New uniforms spiced routines as batons sparkled in city parades, football fields, Riverview and Indianapolis shows. Twirlers went to camp with Band and Drill Team for special instruction, enabling them to perform with poise as well as their natural talent.

Girls Athletic Association engaged in folk dancing, badminton, soccer, and table tennis in first semester, and competed in field hockey and volleyball. Girls practiced gymnastics and track and field in spring semester and participated in state meets as well as district meets. Five highest scorers in bowling were sent into district heads to determine placement with other schools.

Court, Lounge Evolve Thru Council

GHS Student Council made significant advances in student government in 1966-67.

Organization of Student Court gave students a voice in enforcing school rules and discipline. Led by Chief Justice Roger Merkel, justices of each class met each Tuesday and Thursday to try cases of student offenders, summoned to court by hall monitors. Penalties ranged from small fines to work duty in the cafeteria. Student Lounge drive was begun in November with goal of one thousand dollars being realized with donations from student body. Plaque was engraved with names of students giving at least one dollar to be hung in lounge. With contribution from PTA and funds from treasury, work was begun on furnishing former student activities room, transforming it into new Student Lounge. Reception for school officials marked formal opening. Monitored by Student Council members, students relaxed during free modules and after school, with seniors having exclusive lunch hour privileges.

First dance sponsored by Student Council was soc-hop for inauguration of officers, the "Hat Dance." Awards were given for hats worn to dance. Climaxing weekend of Homecoming activities was Student Council sponsored dance. Transforming lobby into winter wonderland for semi-formal dance, members provided opportunity for students to enjoy atmosphere of decorated surroundings.

TAKING A BREAK after classes in the refreshing atmosphere of the student lounge, groups conversationalize and relax after a hard day's work.

PRIVILEGED SENIORS enjoy the priority of their class rank as they lounge in comfort during free time at lunch hours.

NHS Outstanding Glads

National Honor Society served the school and raised money by sponsoring Book-mobile for a week. Helping during study-halls and free time, members became adept at aiding customers and operating the cash register.

Faculty enjoyed punch and cookies at N.H.S. faculty tea in the library. Culminating years of hard work, juniors and seniors were inducted into National Honor Society in an April ceremony in the new Student Activities Room.

World Collections Intrigue Enthusiasts

Building and improving collections was main purpose of Philatelic Club as members carried their albums to and fro trying to increase their collections. Enjoyment prevailed as officerless meetings were held.

Club time was spent discussing new releases, commemoratives, and special displays. Many stamps were received through bargaining with other members, and also through foreign correspondence.

Instruction and games were prevalent at meetings of Chess Club. Strategy was learned through reading and playing. Highlighting the year was film presentation "At War With the Army," their money-making project. An onyx chess set was awarded to winner of raffle.

Money earned replenished club's dwindling supply of chess sets and provided trophies for private tournaments.

Future Teachers and Nurses Plan Careers

FUTURE TEACHERS: K. Hester (president), B. Teets (vice-president), P. Elliott (secretary), P. Pease (treasurer), Mr. N. Young (sponsor).

Future Teachers of America, Merle Grey Chapter, opened year with bake sale at PTA sponsored "Back To School Night." In March FTA candlelight initiation, performed in new student lounge, inducted new members and officers. For annual convention, in April, Future Teachers migrated to Indianapolis. April, Teaching Career Month, sparked Gavitt initiated Teacher of the Year Award and also a special showcase display.

Future Nurses Association continued support of adopted Vietnamese orphan, Kieu Quang Dinh, with proceeds from PTA bake sale contributing to pledge. Members traveled to Chicago to tour Shwab Rehabilitation Hospital and learn of its function. Meetings featured films and guest speakers to inform members about nursing and related health careers.

Literary Clubs Explore Classics

GREAT BOOKS CLUB—Seated: D. Groce, C. Modison, S. Meons, L. Borgmon, B. Henry, J. Killion, M. Twoddle, B. Hayes, T. Adoms. Standing: M. Benson, R. Hoyne, L. Taylor, R. Benson, J. Gillion, C. Twaddle, C. Whitney, R. Hill, D. Horton.

Junior Great Books Club is a voluntary organization which met twelve times through the year for discussion and debate of classical selections. Organized on grade levels, seventh through tenth graders participated in the program.

Provided with paperback editions of classical literature, students read selections and prepared for discussion with two adult co-leaders. Upon completion of series, certificates of achievement were awarded to participants.

Meeting in the Pub and library, English Club members planned projects that included a bake sale during the Kiwanis Travelogue, and two middle school dances featuring the Images of Time, the winning group in a battle of the bands. Former club sponsor Mr. John Muri donated five silent films and his piano playing talents for a Fractured Flickers Show. The evening had an air of the "Gay 20's" accented by two flapper girls who announced each film. Outings scheduled were visits to local colleges and to Chicago for a show and dinner.

Theatre Arts Exemplified by Dramatists

Through improvisation and individual skits, Drama Club participants obtained experienced background in basics of producing full stage productions. Broadening their dramatical interests, members investigated stagecraft skills of flat construction, lighting, and make-up.

An honorary service organization, National Thespians, encompassed students who had earned 15 points based on dramatic services and abilities. Gavit's Thespians were required to participate in two drama productions.

Activities Establish Club Status

Featured activity of the French Club was "Paris A Ye-Ye," a dance featuring "The Red Coats." Members contributed baked goods for bake sale on January 10. Programs were highlighted by slides shown by Karen Hester of her recent summer voyage to France. Several members attended the annual French Dinner at Bishop Noll, toured language labs and obtained ideas for future use. In spring, members traveled to Chicago for a dinner party.

Tacos, enchiladas and Mexican wedding cakes headed the list of colorful Spanish foods at the Spanish Club's dinner on January 6. A Pinata, a candy filled decoration made by the members, added festivity and color to the cafeteria.

Spanish Club participated with other language clubs in organizing the Mardi Gras festival. To encourage the utilization of the Spanish language and culture, the club selected and sponsored a Spanish student as an exchange student to South America.

German Festivity Enhances Club Program

German Club incorporated culture and customs through a program of festive activities. Roger Merkel returned from Germany with slides of scenic views and points of interest for the members to see. Mike Wilson brought back entertaining records of German vocal groups.

Gay atmosphere of Germany was shown at the Christmas party, where the club listened to popular records in German, such as "Wild Thing" and enjoyed pferrernusse, lebkuchen and other German pastries.

PLANNING NEXT MEETING, French club officers, M. Gardner, K. Hester, and D. Hester review program.

Conservationists Inaugurated Landscaping

FEATURED ACTIVITIES were assembled and illustrated by Conservation Club in colorful hall display.

Active describes Conservation Club this year as members attended a variety of events. Members enjoyed sports and boat shows, ice fishing on Wolf Lake, and smelt fishing. Mink, muskrat, raccoon, and beaver were trapped by Conservation Club. Shooting carp with bow and arrow, along with camping and fishing trips rounded out club's activities. Members are still carrying out landscaping program for Gavit. Club time was spent listening to conservation officers, authorities on Conservation, and other interesting speakers.

Men and Machines Cater to GHS

Films reeling through the halls, projectors clattering from room to room, and behind it all, doing the "leg work" were Gavit's AV boys. It was their function to cater audio-visual aids to classes throughout the day.

Mr. Harvey Zaun supervised forty boys assigning divers tasks from film delivery to film editing. In April, the Audio-Visual center of Hammond Public Schools presented its fourth annual award to Mr. Zaun for promoting the use of equipment and pioneering instruction in the school system.

Graphic Arts Club, under sponsorship of Mr. Richard Clausen, met every week during A and B club periods. Major project was printing of memo pads for teachers and classes. Fundamentals of printing were learned and applied in project.

"Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead"

Led by Editor-in-Chief Margaret Gardner, 1967 FUTURA staff planned yearbook on theme, "Today we follow; tomorrow we lead." Adding pages to award winning 1966 Futura pushed total number of pages to two hundred twenty. Revision of basic plan for layout used seven sections rather than the previously used eight. Style changes included adoption of new headline style and new pattern arrangement of photographs. Faculty credits given included degree and college.

For third year running, the 1966 FUTURA was honored with All-American Rating from National Scholastic Press Association of University of Minnesota, and a first place from Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

GROUND WORK completed for the 1967 Futura, editor Margaret Gardner confers with advisor Miss Carol Ann Socks.

Initiations, Excursions Typify Clubs

Quill and Scroll, national journalistic honorary society, inducted twenty-nine members at their April banquet. Meeting requirements of scholarship and journalistic achievement, selected juniors and seniors of FUTURA and SCROLL staff were honored.

Steno Club conducted their meetings by Parliamentary procedure, and collected dues. The co-presidency of Sandy Moore and Linda Raksanyi managed the club during changing sponsorships. "Dance into the New Year" featuring "The Poor Boys" started

Steno club activities rolling. Pre-schoolers enjoyed a Halloween party presented by the club in expounding cooperative relationships with children. Christmas bowling party was held for the girls, and on April 22 a special field trip was made to Chicago to see "The Sound of Music."

To interest members in business hygiene, a speaker from Merle Norman Cosmetics demonstrated the accepted ways that secretaries should dress and apply make-up.

Campus Police Patrol Grounds

Summons were delivered as Campus Police attempted to regulate student parking. Monitors checked that all cars followed regulations set by school concerning flow of traffic and leaving during school hours. Each car parked in lot was registered with school authorities.

During free periods, Campus Police surveyed cars to make certain all were registered and parked in space corresponding to registration number. Violators were tried in Student Court. With aid of Mr. Lawrence Bewley and student director John Surufka, Campus Police helped to provide for a more efficient and organized parking area.

Scientists Partake in Seminar Fair

CONSIDERING PROBLEM of ballistics, Claude Stanley and Jock Levin seek aid of computer.

Science Club members journeyed to University of Chicago for Science Open House where they heard lectures and witnessed demonstrations on topics ranging from glass blowing to nuclear reactions to cybernetics. With money earned from April Fools Day Dance, a trip was taken to Argonne National Laboratories in Argonne, Illinois. Meetings were conducted in a seminar fashion with members presenting information on various topics and offering opportunity for others to question. Several members embarked on a project to build a telescope.

Math Clubs studied and discussed aspects of mathematics at meetings. Members anticipated union with Science Club.

Service Projects Aid Community

The Red Cross was compromised of representatives from each homeroom. These students took charge of all funds and charities within the school. Activities included the collecting of warm clothing for children and the packing of a gift chest sent to India. The group visited St. Ann's Nursing home in Hammond. In December members presented "The Christmas Carol" as profit making project.

Through their affiliation with a state and nation wide organization, Y-Teens members took part in two important functions attended by other Y-Teens and Y.W.C.A. groups of the area.

To help them in attaining their goal as a club, Y-Teens were host to various guest speakers at their meetings. A candlelight initiation for new members and the sponsoring of a soc-hop highlighted activities.

Assistants Lighten Office Tasks

Assisting Mrs. Doris Middleton, guidance office aids performed tasks for smooth running of counselors' office. In addition to alphabetizing and filing, girls typed and took dictation. Learning to operate addressograph and mimeograph machines, aids advanced to more difficult jobs.

Attendance office aids collected and organized green sheets from homerooms, and assisted in compilation of daily absentee list. Each module, class attendance slips were checked and absentees and tardies were recorded. At close of day, green sheets were returned to teachers to complete day.

The Senior Class completed the last of their school days with a wide range of activities, including the memorable Senior Trip spent in the nation's Capital and New York City. Class spirit soared at October Homecoming as the seniors created the prize-winning first place float "We Wanna Bar Clark." A second place award was given for the Christmas float in the annual Chamber of Commerce parade.

Loyal members of the class wore blue cords to display the names of friends and activities they had contact with during the past four years. Prom theme, "A Knight to Remember," highlighted the spring activities.

A 100% donation of money priveleged the seniors to initiate use of the student lounge during lunch hours. The class presented the school with a complete silver tea service and painting by Roger Merkel for the lounge. Traditional Senior Banquet, where the class wills and prophecies were read, was followed by Baccalaureate and final commencement on June 7.

Juniors Prize Class Rings and Prom

Members of the class of 1968 sponsored a prize winning float titled "Packed With Go-Power" at Homecoming festivities. On October 11, eligible juniors received their class rings.

At a Halloween party exclusively for juniors, cash prizes were awarded for the best costumes. In December juniors migrated to the athletic field to sell Christmas trees, stands, and fruit cakes.

"A Knight To Remember," the 68'er's prom with idea centering on Camelot, was presented on May 19 in the Gavit gymnasium.

The class was led by sponsors Miss Diane Clinton and Mr. Lawrence Bewley; president, Dave Flood; vice-president, Jim Federoff; treasurer, Peggy Monzulla; secretary, Debbie Vance; co-sergeants-at-arms, Tom Sartoris and Jim Hickman; and representatives, Karen Lax, Jo Ellen Canale, and Shirley Mulvihill.

MEMORIAM

DAVID LEE ALDRICH

September 4, 1950

September 15, 1966

While attending Gavit, Dave participated in various athletics and organizations. He was on the baseball and wrestling teams, served the Scroll as a sports reporter, was past vice president of the Latin Club, and took part in the Audio-Visual Club. He was also a past president of the Methodist Youth Federation.

Sophomore Treasury Expands $3000

Theme for Sophomore homecoming float was "Catch Us if You Can." The float was constructed with two football players in a forward position on a field of green. Purple and white goal posts set off the effect, and a hidden phonograph played "Catch Us if You Can."

Enthusiastic Sophomores invaded the cafeteria to push the second major candy drive of the year. Students pursued an all-out effort to raise money for class projects. As a result, three thousand dollars was collected for use in future prom plans.

Officers for the '69 class were president, Cindy Hines; vice-president, Neena Natkin; treasurer, Judy Grovich; secretary, Janet Murfin; sergeant-at-arms, Cindy Bauer; and representatives, Diane Baker, Janet Perry and Linda Callahan. Novel ideas initiated "Bermuda Fling" a dance at which students were allowed to wear bermuda shorts. Sponsors, Mr. Frank Gradisher and Miss Mary Sabol checked credit for students who ordered class rings.

Candy Sales Establishes Freshmen Fund

Selling candy bars in the fall and sweat shirts in the spring kept Freshmen on the go. A television set was the prize for a raffle participated in by candy salesmen. Gift certificates were given to other high salesmen.

The Freshmen piggy bank rapidly filled. The Class of '70 grew to 3,000 dollars in the bank, which is more than any other Freshmen class has ever had.

Freshmen gained voting know-how by using voting machines in class elections. Dee Oswalt was elected president; vice president, Lenore Kaminski; secretary, Lynn Sandor; treasurer, Linda Gluth; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Ron Kohut. The three representatives were Cathy Whitney, Sid Smith, and Barb Bosinger.

Inservice Training Programs Initiated

Dr. Oliver P. Rapp—Superintendent of Hammond public schools.

The 1966-1967 school year opened with a total of 2,157 students and a teaching staff of 114. The first all school projects of the year were Homecoming and Back-to-school Night. In March teachers, parents, and students participated in the seventh annual pancake breakfast.

Five times throughout the year faculty members met with other teachers in the city for inservice training programs. Improvement of instruction was topic for departmental discussions.

Gavit's curriculum was expanded with the addition of five new courses, Expository Composition, Stagecraft, Social Problems, Russian and Art History.

Middle Schoolers Demonstrate Leadership

Newly oriented middle schoolers took a giant step forward while attending Gavit. Often bewildered, seventh graders found new class schedules and activities confusing and unfamiliar. As the year progressed they found opportunity to expand their interests through academically aimed courses and clubs.

Middle school student council, under the sponsorship of Mr. Donald McLean, worked jointly with high school student council in governing the student body.

Rounding out the year's activities were the Honors Assembly and graduation. Outstanding seventh and eighth graders received recognition from both peer group and faculty.

Musical Abilities and Talents Displayed

WILLING TO TRADE their prized possessions, Tom's buddies submit to his scheming methods, and are persuaded to whitewash the fence.

March 17 the Middle school presented the operetta, Tom Sawyer. Miss Barbara Miller and Miss Elizabeth Glick, aided by student director Michele Koval, produced the play. Mr. Harrold Morris directed the lighting, make-up and stage crew.

The title role was portrayed by Ike Monzulla with Vernicce Kearschner as Becky Thatcher, Tom's childhood love interest. Richard Cantrell co-starred as Huck Finn, a fellow sufferer. Costumes were provided by Cathy Stahl. Sue Stanton coached the dancing.

Middle school band joined the high school to present concerts. The Cadet Band along with the High School Concert Band presented a Christmas program complete with costumes.

Cadet Band competed in the District Contest at Highland H.S. in February and in another competition in Crown Point in March. In both, the Cadet Band and Cadet Orchestra received a second place rating.

Variety of High School Courses

Accelerated Science was offered for the first time this year as students deftly dissected earthworms and crayfish. French, German, Latin and Spanish were offered to extend middle schoolers knowledge of the world.

Boys learned to work with wood, metal, drawing, and electricity in Practical Arts. Girls gained knowledge of food, clothing and manners in Home Economics. Boys and girls were separated for art one day a week and music two days a week. Physical education finished the week for both boys and girls.

Middle school students had the same electives as high school students but geared to their age group. Eighth grade students were the only Middle school students permitted to participate in typing. Speech, drama, journalism met two days a week, while band, orchestra and typing met five days a week.

USING FLASH cards to demonstrate, Miss Danette Kelemen helps students to build a French vocabulary.

An open book can open doors

In our recruiting we ask that applicants have completed their High School education. That's because we try always to fill higher, more responsible jobs from the ranks of our employees. And the records show—the better the employee's education, the better he is at his job—and the better he does for himself.

Inland employees continue to gain knowledge and experience in special trades through formal apprenticeship programs offered in the following trades—Machinist, Patternmaking, Boilermaking, Welding, Shop Electrician, Wireman, Mason and Pipefitter.

Many concentrate on certain phases of steelmaking by working in production while others work in laboratories helping to assure quality or developing new and better products for our customers.

How about you? Inland Steel is steadily expanding. More and more opportunities will be open to you as our growth continues. Are you ready?

"Don't Come To School Without 'Em!"

The hard work that goes into a yearbook is, many times, overshadowed by lighter moments filled with . . . flying erasers . . . hairy flower music . . . "the pigs ate it" . . . how's the photographer doing? . . . WHERE'S Chris!! . . . Rayco's mysterious letters to the Editor . . . Cliff & Sharon . . . Red Garter, "Now come on you guys, I mean IT!" . . . "If we don't get this done" . . . nights after school . . . 4,000 index cards . . . layout paper?? . . . broken typewriters . . . notes scrawled on the board . . . add 8 . . . missing copy . . . "It wasn't on MY desk" . . . Cliff's window signs . . . "TIGER" . . . John Babie . . . unstuffed pink cat . . . locked drawers . . . tug boat Annie . . . "I hate you" . . . "who are you, King?" . . . "I quit!" . . . that doesn'T follow the style . . . Courtney's boyfriend . . . April 17 . . . "I hate you!" . . . draw it "Sports" . . . qualified staff, double pages . . . We Lead . . . colored pictures.
